To Whom It May Concern,

Letter of Support for Niels Brock Copenhagen Business College

De Montfort University (DMU) is proud to provide this letter of support for our esteemed academic partner, Niels Brock Copenhagen Business College. Our collaboration, which spans over three decades, is a testament to the strength, consistency, and shared commitment to academic excellence that defines our partnership.

Over the past 30 years, Niels Brock has consistently demonstrated a high standard of academic delivery that aligns with the rigorous expectations of DMU. The teaching and learning environment at Niels Brock is of exceptional quality, underpinned by a dedicated faculty, robust academic governance, and a student-centred approach that mirrors the values and standards upheld at DMU.

We are confident in stating that the academic experience provided at Niels Brock is on par with that of De Montfort University. The curriculum is delivered with integrity and intellectual rigour, and the assessment and feedback processes are carefully managed to ensure fairness, transparency, and academic integrity. Students at Niels Brock benefit from a learning environment that fosters critical thinking, global awareness, and professional readiness - hallmarks of a DMU education.

Our regular quality assurance reviews, joint academic boards, and collaborative development initiatives have consistently confirmed the high quality of teaching, student support, and academic outcomes at Niels Brock. The staff at Niels Brock are not only highly qualified but also deeply committed to continuous improvement and pedagogic innovation, ensuring that students receive a transformative and future-focused education.

We are fully satisfied with the academic quality and operational effectiveness of our collaboration with Niels Brock. It is a partnership built on trust, shared vision, and a mutual dedication to providing students with an outstanding international education.

With best wishes,

Professor Katie Normington
Chief Executive Officer and Vice-Chancellor
